

The Occasional
Asheville Stamp Club
Gazette

Vol 3, Issue 8
Au 11/24

Hello summer philatelists chomping at the bit waiting for the fall so that you can really gear up for your stamp collecting passion. Good news! We have one more casual and relaxed meeting next week on Sunday, August 18 at 1:30 at the Deerfield Community Center in Asheville. I'm sure everyone has some summer stories by now and hopefully many of them involves stamps!

Tradition confirms that we will have a 50/50 draw, door prizes, Show and Tell, new 5 cent stamps, the free table, a members bourse held over from our July meeting and a box lot auction with lots that members bring in as well and most important of all the chance to see your stamp collecting friends, confidants, accomplices, buyers, sellers, traders, admirers, philatelic rumor mongers and rabble rousers. No wait. Hold that! Stamp collectors are the mellowest of folks and rarely is a rabble roused. Your safety and peaceful enjoyment is guaranteed!

I must save the remainder of my monthly allotment of exclamation marks to the end of the Gazette so suffice it say by all means come to the club meeting which will be here before you know it. Don't forget your traders, items for the auction and stamps you would like to sell. Fun will be had as always. And if so inspired, upload a stamp or cover for the show and tell.
