Hello stamp collectors! Just a quick reminder about this coming Saturday's December 14th Asheville Stamp Club annual Christmas/ Hanukkah/Holiday Celebration luncheon in the Deerfield dining room. We will have our own room for Christmas hobnobbing beginning at 11 a.m. This early time which Deerfield requested also allows us to beat the rush of all the residents arriving for lunch around noon. Thank you to you late sleepers for your understanding.

The lunch is the gift of the club to its dedicated members with all the best wishes of the season! No reservations are required. All you have to do is arrive (preferably with bells on, however they are optional).

We worked very hard on developing a system whereby those unable to attend could have their lunch delivered by Zoom. However despite several very well thought out proposals around how that might be accomplished we were not successful. As a result we regret that there will not be a zoom capability at the luncheon.

Looking forward to seeing you! Bring your best appetite for their delicious buffet!
