The seal of Asheville, North Carolina, is circular with a landscape scene in the center. The word "ASHEVILLE" is written in a semi-circle at the top, and "N. C." is at the bottom.

FEB10/25

We're in luck! Since February 1st was a Sunday we only have to wait a few more days until the 16th for our next meeting! So, come join us for our usual fun time at the Asheville Stamp Club at the Deerfield Community Center at 1:30 in the afternoon. Come earlier if you like. Help with setup is always appreciated!

This month we will have our auction (bring your goodies), 50/50 draw, door prizes, free table (bring goodies for OTHER people and take a few home for yourself), our Scott catalogs, new 5 cent stamps, a members auction (in person only) and a huge cake will be wheeled in and 12 dancing girls will burst from it wielding inverted Jennies for EVERY member! (note to self: Do not use AI to write the Gazette as it will hallucinate and make up completely false information) My fact checkers have confirmed that all previous claims are true except for the cake. Just to confirm.

Feel free to set up for a member's bourse as well. Your chance to wheel and deal, trade, buy and sell. Think of the possibilities!

In the interest of community involvement our presentation this month will be made by YOU and ME. We will have a Show and Telathon featuring one fascinating item after another. So dig deep and upload as many stamps, covers or items of philatelic interest as you would like. We promise to have you all home by 9:00..

At 8:00 this coming Wednesday, February 12 we will have our 'How to Improve the Club' Zoom get together. If you weren't lucky enough to attend any of our pandemic Zooms you'll find this a nice surprise as to how enjoyable these intimate gatherings are. And think of all the great new ideas we'll come up with! See you there! You'll find the Zoom link below.

The stamp club meeting is the highlight of my month. How 'bout yours?
