Vol4/Issue 6
JUN12/25

Yes indeed! We will be meeting on Father's Day, June 15 at the Deerfield Community Center at 1:30. Please feel free to bring all your children but that is entirely optional. But what is not optional is that you bring your enthusiasm for stamps and your enjoyment of our wonderful meeting with all your stamp friends. We will have new 5 cent stamps, a free table, Show and Tell, a presentation on the magnificent and misunderstood master forger Jean de Speratti, a box lot auction to go along with the submissions that you bring in and a tease about a large collection the club has bought to be offered in two auctions in September and October. Dozens of countries will be offered, something for everyone at very affordable prices. We will also preview a launch of initiatives to come on line for the September meeting.
